

Radiance, a talented vocal quartet formed specifically to pay tribute to the music of the Supremes, Martha & the Vandellas, the Marvelettes, and the other female artists from that amazing musical era has performed throughout the United States and are standouts in their home base, The Entertainment Capital of the World, Las Vegas.

The ladies of Radiance consist of some of the finest that Las Vegas has to offer. The members of the group from left to right are Wendy Edmead, Marque´ Munday, Vivian Ross, and Crystal Robinson. Together, they provide an array of talent that never leaves the audience wanting, unless it's wanting more! Each brings her years of experience to the stage, having performed in major theatrical productions in virtually every showroom on the Vegas Strip as well as in various national and international Motown tribute tours.

Some of the many songs in their repertoire include Come See About Me, Dancing In The Street, Stop In The Name Of Love, Please Mr. Postman, You Keep Me Hanging On, When Will I See You Again, and the list goes on.

The costuming, the choreography, the harmonies, the energy, and excitement are second to none and make for a spectacular show transforming your audience back to an era of music that formed a major cornerstone in American music of the 60s and 70s.
